American Primrose Society Seed Donation Form

|  | SPECIES                                 | COLOR / VARIETY                 | COLLECTION SITE      |
|--|---|---------------------------------|----------------------|
| 1  |   |                                 |                      |
| 2  |   |                                 |                      |
| 3  |   |                                 |                      |
| 4  |   |                                 |                      |
| 5  |   |                                 |                      |
| 6  |   |                                 |                      |
| 7  |   |                                 |                      |
| 8  |   |                                 |                      |
| 9  |   |                                 |                      |
| 10   |   |                                 |                      |
| 11   |   |                                 |                      |
| 12   |   |                                 |                      |
| 13   |   |                                 |                      |
| 14   |   |                                 |                      |
| 15   |   |                                 |                      |
| Pleas  | e print or type information for one pac | ket of seed on each line. Re su | re vour name and the |
| Please print or type information for one packet of seed on each line. Be sure your name and the information from this form appear on every packet. Seal packets well (especially corners) to |   |                                 |                      |
| prevent leaking, and pad them to withstand crushing by postal rollers.   |   |                                 |                      |
|  |   |                                 |                      |
| USA donors mail to: Amy Olmsted, 421 Birch Rd., Hubbardton VT 05733   |   |                                 |                      |
| Other donors mail to: Pascal Vigot, 1171 Seigneurie Ste-Emelie, QC J0K 2K0 Canada  |   |                                 |                      |
| Name   |   |                                 |                      |
| Ema  | ail                                     | _ Telephone                     |                      |
| Address (with country and postal codes, please)  |   |                                 |                      |

We greatly appreciate the time and effort you have spent collecting and sharing seeds. THANK YOU!